

AIMS Instrumental Music Academy

Music Tutor Programme

Private lessons with qualified Music Professionals

Instrumental lessons involve private tuition on an instrument of choice. Woodwind, string, percussion, piano and guitar tutors provide specialised instrumental tuition and music reading skills.

Being involved in music making requires participation with others therefore students will be invited to join AISM's music ensembles when they have reached a suitable standard.

AIMS Instrumental Music Academy Policy:

Students are encouraged to develop correct skills and techniques on their chosen instrument under the guidance of a professional tutor. The students are encouraged to participate in examinations suitable to their level of ability or they may learn for their own pleasure.

The program is conducted as an extension to the classroom music program. Students are withdrawn from class for their individual lessons.

- If a student wishes to leave the Academy, notice in writing of a student's withdrawal is required from parents at least two full weeks prior to the end of the term. Initial enrolment is for a minimum of two terms.

Absence from a lesson

- In the case of student absence due to illness or school excursion please inform the teacher no later than the morning of the lesson
- Whilst every effort will be made to arrange a catch up lesson for those missed through illness it should be understood that this is not always possible.

AIMS is acting as an agent between the parents and the tutors and not as a principal.

AIMS Instrumental Music Academy Enrolment Form

A separate enrolment form is required for each student
